It is an American children's song published by the company in Boston as a poem written by an American poet in 1830. It seems that the poem is based on the actual event of a girl Mary Sawyer and a sheep of pet. The statue of Mary's sheep appears to be built in the center of the town of Stirling, Massachusetts where there was a house of Mary Sawyer. 170628

Mary had a little lamb

American song

Mary had a little lamb
little lamb, little lamb,
Mary had a little lamb
Its fleece was white as snow

And everywhere that Mary went Mary went, Mary went Everywhere that Mary went
The lamb was sure to go.

It followed her to school one day school one day, school one day,
It followed her to school one day
That was against the rule

It made the children laugh and play laugh and play, laugh and play
It made the children laugh and play
To see a lamb at school.

And so the teacher turned it out,
But still it lingered near,
And waited patiently about
Till Mary did appear.

“Why does the lamb love Mary so?
Mary so? Mary so?
Why does the lamb love Mary so?”
The eager children cry

“Why, Mary loves the lamb, you know, lamb, you know, lamb, you know,
Mary loves the lamb, you know”
The teacher did reply
