Correctly it is a song called "march of the saints". In a black spiritual song, from Africa to the United States, black people who were forced to work were washed from the beautiful melody that flowed from the white church and spontaneously made it with their own rhythms. There are many variations of lyrics. This song is also sung when we send the deceased of black people.

When the Saints Go Marching in

American folk song

Oh, when the saints go marching in,
Oh ,when the saints go marching in,
Oh, Lord, I wanna be in that number,
When the saints go marching in.

Up where the streets are paved with gold,
Up where the streets are paved with gold,
Oh Lord I wanna be in that number,
Where the streets are paved with gold.

Oh,when they crown Him Lord of all,
Oh,when they crown Him Lord of all,
Oh, Lord, I wanna be in that number,
When they crown Him Lord of all.

Oh, when the saints go marching in,
Oh ,when the saints go marching in,
Oh, Lord, I wanna be in that number,
When the saints go marching in.
